Me

I was Born in Cantù in may 1986, close Como Lake and living in Milan, italy. I had an artistic training on several occasion for all of my life starting from my family, where my mother is a musician and piano teacher and musician worker and my father a photographer and musician as well, up to my academic life with parts of arts, cinema and art direction. I also had more than one moment in my life where i was a factory worker, painter and electrician. I'm a Stakhanovite and passionate worker. I always try to find new targets for my job, my objective is to achieve professional growth and learn new things.
